

Position	Community Advocacy Intern
General Description	The Community Advocacy Intern works closely with CADA Community Advocates to serve victims of domestic and sexual violence through legal advocacy, emotional support, and support groups
Location	Internship opportunities throughout service area
Reports to	Community Advocates
Key Responsibilities	Shadow and assist community advocates in providing direct client services, including, but not limited to: Emotional support and safety planning Writing and filing legal protective orders Attending and tracking court proceedings Crisis response via phone and in-person at hospitals, law enforcement centers, and schools Providing information and referrals to community resources and agency partners Providing follow-up services to clients Initial contact with clients via phone and in-person meetings Provide childcare, as needed, to allow parent to access advocacy services Assist with the planning and facilitation of support groups Participate in crisis call-out rotation to provide crisis response services after hours and weekends (interns will sign up for shifts that work with their schedules) Maintain confidentiality of all CADA clients and staff, as well as all agency-and client-related information and business Promote and uphold CADA's values of respect, empowerment, safety, diversity and collaboration among clients, staff, and other CADA representatives Maintain accurate time records and adhere to all agency policies and procedures Communicate with volunteer coordinator and site supervisor in a timely and professional manner Complete other duties as requested
Learning Objectives	 Upon successful completion of internship, the student will be able to: Direct victims and survivors to appropriate community and organizational resources Practice crisis intervention, safety planning, general advocacy skills Plan and co-facilitate support groups Upon successful completion of internship, the student should have a broader knowledge and understanding of: The intricacies of domestic and sexual as well as available community and organizational resources for victims

Victim-centered and trauma informed advocacy The daily and ongoing operations of a nonprofit organization A foundational understanding of the dynamics and impacts of domestic and sexual violence Demonstrate superior professional boundaries An interest in working with diverse, disadvantaged, and marginalized populations, and be empathetic and responsive to people in crisis Possess excellent interpersonal and communication skills, and be punctual, responsible, and organized Have the ability and motivation to lead projects with little direction, and work well independently Multilingual skills are a plus Selection Criteria Minimum of 400 hour commitment Seeking students pursuing degrees in: Social work Psychology Gender & Women's Studies Sociology Corrections Students from other departments or programs are welcome to apply Students from other departments or programs are welcome to apply Students must live within CADA's service area Training and supervision All direct service interns are required to complete state mandated 40-hour sexual assault advocacy certification training. Students will also complete an internship orientation, as well as on-the-job training specific to their site placement. Students will have regular meetings with site supervisors in order to discuss current projects, provide updates, gain support, and conduct trouble-shooting for any difficulties that may arise. Students are expected to attend various meetings and trainings.		Civil and criminal legal processes
Skills and qualifications • The daily and ongoing operations of a nonprofit organization • A foundational understanding of the dynamics and impacts of domestic and sexual violence • Demonstrate superior professional boundaries • An interest in working with diverse, disadvantaged, and marginalized populations, and be empathetic and responsive to people in crisis • Possess excellent interpersonal and communication skills, and be punctual, responsible, and organized • Have the ability and motivation to lead projects with little direction, and work well independently • Multilingual skills are a plus Selection Criteria • Minimum of 400 hour commitment • Seeking students pursuing degrees in: • Social work • Psychology • Gender & Women's Studies • Sociology • Corrections • Students from other departments or programs are welcome to apply • Students must live within CADA's service area Training and supervision Training and supervision All direct service interns are required to complete state mandated 40-hour sexual assault advocacy certification training. Students will also complete an internship orientation, as well as on-the-job training specific to their site placement. Students will have regular meetings with site supervisors in order to discuss current projects, provide updates, gain support, and conduct trouble-shooting for any difficulties that may arise. Students are expected to attend various meetings and trainings.
Skills and qualifications • A foundational understanding of the dynamics and impacts of domestic and sexual violence • Demonstrate superior professional boundaries • An interest in working with diverse, disadvantaged, and marginalized populations, and be empathetic and responsive to people in crisis • Possess excellent interpersonal and communication skills, and be punctual, responsible, and organized • Have the ability and motivation to lead projects with little direction, and work well independently • Multilingual skills are a plus Selection Criteria • Minimum of 400 hour commitment • Seeking students pursuing degrees in: • Social work • Psychology • Gender & Women's Studies • Sociology • Corrections • Students from other departments or programs are welcome to apply • Both undergraduate and graduate students are encouraged to apply • Students must live within CADA's service area Training and supervision All direct service interns are required to complete state mandated 40-hour sexual assault advocacy certification training. Students will also complete an internship orientation, as well as on-the-job training specific to their site placement. Students will have regular meetings with site supervisors in order to discuss current projects, provide updates, gain support, and conduct trouble-shooting for any difficulties that may arise. Students are expected to attend various meetings and trainings.		, and sexual violence Demonstrate superior professional boundaries An interest in working with diverse, disadvantaged, and marginalized populations, and be empathetic and responsive to people in crisis Possess excellent interpersonal and communication skills, and be punctual, responsible, and organized Have the ability and motivation to lead projects with little direction, and work well independently Multilingual skills are a plus Selection Criteria Minimum of 400 hour commitment Seeking students pursuing degrees in: Social work Psychology Gender & Women's Studies Sociology Corrections Students from other departments or programs are welcome to apply Both undergraduate and graduate students are encouraged to apply Students must live within CADA's service area Training and supervision All direct service interns are required to complete state mandated 40-hour sexual assault advocacy certification training. Students will also complete an internship orientation, as well as on-the-job training specific to their site placement. Students will have regular meetings with site supervisors in order to discuss current projects, provide updates, gain support, and conduct trouble-shooting for any difficulties that may arise. Students are expected to attend various meetings and trainings.		I ne daily and ongoing operations of a nonprofit organization
Demonstrate superior professional boundaries An interest in working with diverse, disadvantaged, and marginalized populations, and be empathetic and responsive to people in crisis Possess excellent interpersonal and communication skills, and be punctual, responsible, and organized Have the ability and motivation to lead projects with little direction, and work well independently Multilingual skills are a plus Selection Criteria Minimum of 400 hour commitment Seeking students pursuing degrees in: Social work Psychology Gender & Women's Studies Sociology Corrections Students from other departments or programs are welcome to apply Students from other departments or programs are welcome to apply Students must live within CADA's service area All direct service interns are required to complete state mandated 40-hour sexual assault advocacy certification training. Students will also complete an internship orientation, as well as on-the-job training specific to their site placement. Students will have regular meetings with site supervisors in order to discuss current projects, provide updates, gain support, and conduct trouble-shooting for any difficulties that may arise. Students are expected to attend various meetings and trainings.	Skills and	A foundational understanding of the dynamics and impacts of domestic
An interest in working with diverse, disadvantaged, and marginalized populations, and be empathetic and responsive to people in crisis Possess excellent interpersonal and communication skills, and be punctual, responsible, and organized Have the ability and motivation to lead projects with little direction, and work well independently Multilingual skills are a plus Selection Criteria Minimum of 400 hour commitment Seeking students pursuing degrees in: Social work Psychology Gender & Women's Studies Sociology Corrections Students from other departments or programs are welcome to apply Both undergraduate and graduate students are encouraged to apply Students must live within CADA's service area Training and supervision All direct service interns are required to complete state mandated 40-hour sexual assault advocacy certification training. Students will also complete an internship orientation, as well as on-the-job training specific to their site placement. Students will have regular meetings with site supervisors in order to discuss current projects, provide updates, gain support, and conduct trouble-shooting for any difficulties that may arise. Students are expected to attend various meetings and trainings.	qualifications	and sexual violence
An interest in working with diverse, disadvantaged, and marginalized populations, and be empathetic and responsive to people in crisis Possess excellent interpersonal and communication skills, and be punctual, responsible, and organized Have the ability and motivation to lead projects with little direction, and work well independently Multilingual skills are a plus Selection Criteria Minimum of 400 hour commitment Seeking students pursuing degrees in: Social work Psychology Gender & Women's Studies Sociology Corrections Students from other departments or programs are welcome to apply Both undergraduate and graduate students are encouraged to apply Students must live within CADA's service area Training and supervision All direct service interns are required to complete state mandated 40-hour sexual assault advocacy certification training. Students will also complete an internship orientation, as well as on-the-job training specific to their site placement. Students will have regular meetings with site supervisors in order to discuss current projects, provide updates, gain support, and conduct trouble-shooting for any difficulties that may arise. Students are expected to attend various meetings and trainings.		Demonstrate superior professional boundaries populations, and be empathetic and responsive to people in crisis Possess excellent interpersonal and communication skills, and be punctual, responsible, and organized Have the ability and motivation to lead projects with little direction, and work well independently Multilingual skills are a plus Minimum of 400 hour commitment Seeking students pursuing degrees in: Social work Psychology Gender & Women's Studies Sociology Corrections Students from other departments or programs are welcome to apply Both undergraduate and graduate students are encouraged to apply Students must live within CADA's service area Training and supervision All direct service interns are required to complete state mandated 40-hour sexual assault advocacy certification training. Students will also complete an internship orientation, as well as on-the-job training specific to their site placement. Students will have regular meetings with site supervisors in order to discuss current projects, provide updates, gain support, and conduct trouble-shooting for any difficulties that may arise. Students are expected to attend various meetings and trainings.
Possess excellent interpersonal and communication skills, and be punctual, responsible, and organized Have the ability and motivation to lead projects with little direction, and work well independently Multilingual skills are a plus Selection Criteria Minimum of 400 hour commitment Seeking students pursuing degrees in: Social work Psychology Gender & Women's Studies Sociology Corrections Students from other departments or programs are welcome to apply Students must live within CADA's service area Training and supervision All direct service interns are required to complete state mandated 40-hour sexual assault advocacy certification training. Students will also complete an internship orientation, as well as on-the-job training specific to their site placement. Students will have regular meetings with site supervisors in order to discuss current projects, provide updates, gain support, and conduct trouble-shooting for any difficulties that may arise. Students are expected to attend various meetings and trainings. responsible, and organized Have the ability and motivation to lead projects with little direction, and work well independently Multilingual skills are a plus Selection Criteria Minimum of 400 hour commitment Seeking students pursuing degrees in: Social work Psychology Gender & Women's Studies Sociology Corrections Students from other departments or programs are welcome to apply Both undergraduate and graduate students are encouraged to apply Students must live within CADA's service area Training and supervision All direct service interns are required to complete state mandated 40-hour sexual assault advocacy certification training. Students will also complete an internship orientation, as well as on-the-job training specific to their site placement. Students will have regular meetings with site supervisors in order to discuss current projects, provide updates, gain support, and conduct trouble-shooting for any difficulties that may arise. Students are expected to attend various meetings and trainings.
 Have the ability and motivation to lead projects with little direction, and work well independently Multilingual skills are a plus Minimum of 400 hour commitment Seeking students pursuing degrees in: Social work Psychology Gender & Women's Studies Sociology Corrections Students from other departments or programs are welcome to apply Both undergraduate and graduate students are encouraged to apply Students must live within CADA's service area All direct service interns are required to complete state mandated 40-hour sexual assault advocacy certification training. Students will also complete an internship orientation, as well as on-the-job training specific to their site placement. Students will have regular meetings with site supervisors in order to discuss current projects, provide updates, gain support, and conduct trouble-shooting for any difficulties that may arise. Students are expected to attend various meetings and trainings. 		, work well independently Multilingual skills are a plus Minimum of 400 hour commitment Seeking students pursuing degrees in: Social work Psychology Gender & Women's Studies Sociology Corrections Students from other departments or programs are welcome to apply Both undergraduate and graduate students are encouraged to apply Students must live within CADA's service area Training and supervision All direct service interns are required to complete state mandated 40-hour sexual assault advocacy certification training. Students will also complete an internship orientation, as well as on-the-job training specific to their site placement. Students will have regular meetings with site supervisors in order to discuss current projects, provide updates, gain support, and conduct trouble-shooting for any difficulties that may arise. Students are expected to attend various meetings and trainings.
Multilingual skills are a plus Minimum of 400 hour commitment Seeking students pursuing degrees in: Social work Psychology Gender & Women's Studies Sociology Corrections Students from other departments or programs are welcome to apply Both undergraduate and graduate students are encouraged to apply Students must live within CADA's service area Training and supervision All direct service interns are required to complete state mandated 40-hour sexual assault advocacy certification training. Students will also complete an internship orientation, as well as on-the-job training specific to their site placement. Students will have regular meetings with site supervisors in order to discuss current projects, provide updates, gain support, and conduct trouble-shooting for any difficulties that may arise. Students are expected to attend various meetings and trainings.
Minimum of 400 hour commitment Seeking students pursuing degrees in: Social work Psychology Gender & Women's Studies Sociology Corrections Students from other departments or programs are welcome to apply Both undergraduate and graduate students are encouraged to apply Students must live within CADA's service area Training and supervision All direct service interns are required to complete state mandated 40-hour sexual assault advocacy certification training. Students will also complete an internship orientation, as well as on-the-job training specific to their site placement. Students will have regular meetings with site supervisors in order to discuss current projects, provide updates, gain support, and conduct trouble-shooting for any difficulties that may arise. Students are expected to attend various meetings and trainings.
Seeking students pursuing degrees in:	Selection Criteria
 Social work Psychology Gender & Women's Studies Sociology Corrections Students from other departments or programs are welcome to apply Both undergraduate and graduate students are encouraged to apply Students must live within CADA's service area Training and supervision All direct service interns are required to complete state mandated 40-hour sexual assault advocacy certification training. Students will also complete an internship orientation, as well as on-the-job training specific to their site placement. Students will have regular meetings with site supervisors in order to discuss current projects, provide updates, gain support, and conduct trouble-shooting for any difficulties that may arise. Students are expected to attend various meetings and trainings.
 Psychology Gender & Women's Studies Sociology Corrections Students from other departments or programs are welcome to apply Both undergraduate and graduate students are encouraged to apply Students must live within CADA's service area All direct service interns are required to complete state mandated 40-hour sexual assault advocacy certification training. Students will also complete an internship orientation, as well as on-the-job training specific to their site placement. Students will have regular meetings with site supervisors in order to discuss current projects, provide updates, gain support, and conduct trouble-shooting for any difficulties that may arise. Students are expected to attend various meetings and trainings.
 Gender & Women's Studies Sociology Corrections Students from other departments or programs are welcome to apply Both undergraduate and graduate students are encouraged to apply Students must live within CADA's service area Training and supervision All direct service interns are required to complete state mandated 40-hour sexual assault advocacy certification training. Students will also complete an internship orientation, as well as on-the-job training specific to their site placement. Students will have regular meetings with site supervisors in order to discuss current projects, provide updates, gain support, and conduct trouble-shooting for any difficulties that may arise. Students are expected to attend various meetings and trainings.
Corrections Students from other departments or programs are welcome to apply Both undergraduate and graduate students are encouraged to apply Students must live within CADA's service area All direct service interns are required to complete state mandated 40-hour sexual assault advocacy certification training. Students will also complete an internship orientation, as well as on-the-job training specific to their site placement. Students will have regular meetings with site supervisors in order to discuss current projects, provide updates, gain support, and conduct trouble-shooting for any difficulties that may arise. Students are expected to attend various meetings and trainings.		, •,
Corrections Students from other departments or programs are welcome to apply Both undergraduate and graduate students are encouraged to apply Students must live within CADA's service area All direct service interns are required to complete state mandated 40-hour sexual assault advocacy certification training. Students will also complete an internship orientation, as well as on-the-job training specific to their site placement. Students will have regular meetings with site supervisors in order to discuss current projects, provide updates, gain support, and conduct trouble-shooting for any difficulties that may arise. Students are expected to attend various meetings and trainings.		 Sociology
apply Both undergraduate and graduate students are encouraged to apply Students must live within CADA's service area All direct service interns are required to complete state mandated 40-hour sexual assault advocacy certification training. Students will also complete an internship orientation, as well as on-the-job training specific to their site placement. Students will have regular meetings with site supervisors in order to discuss current projects, provide updates, gain support, and conduct trouble-shooting for any difficulties that may arise. Students are expected to attend various meetings and trainings.		- .
apply Both undergraduate and graduate students are encouraged to apply Students must live within CADA's service area All direct service interns are required to complete state mandated 40-hour sexual assault advocacy certification training. Students will also complete an internship orientation, as well as on-the-job training specific to their site placement. Students will have regular meetings with site supervisors in order to discuss current projects, provide updates, gain support, and conduct trouble-shooting for any difficulties that may arise. Students are expected to attend various meetings and trainings.		 Students from other departments or programs are welcome to Both undergraduate and graduate students are encouraged to apply Students must live within CADA's service area Training and assault advocacy certification training. Students will also complete an internship orientation, as well as on-the-job training specific to their site placement. Students will have regular meetings with site supervisors in order to discuss current projects, provide updates, gain support, and conduct trouble-shooting for any difficulties that may arise. Students are expected to attend various meetings and trainings. 		• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •
• Students must live within CADA's service area All direct service interns are required to complete state mandated 40-hour sexual assault advocacy certification training. Students will also complete an internship orientation, as well as on-the-job training specific to their site placement. Students will have regular meetings with site supervisors in order to discuss current projects, provide updates, gain support, and conduct trouble-shooting for any difficulties that may arise. Students are expected to attend various meetings and trainings.
assault advocacy certification training. Students will also complete an internship orientation, as well as on-the-job training specific to their site placement. Students will have regular meetings with site supervisors in order to discuss current projects, provide updates, gain support, and conduct trouble-shooting for any difficulties that may arise. Students are expected to attend various meetings and trainings.
Students will also complete an internship orientation, as well as on-the-job training specific to their site placement. Students will have regular meetings with site supervisors in order to discuss current projects, provide updates, gain support, and conduct trouble-shooting for any difficulties that may arise. Students are expected to attend various meetings and trainings.	Training and	All direct service interns are required to complete state mandated 40-hour sexual specific to their site placement. Students will have regular meetings with site supervisors in order to discuss current projects, provide updates, gain support, and conduct trouble-shooting for any difficulties that may arise. Students are expected to attend various meetings and trainings.	supervision
specific to their site placement. Students will have regular meetings with site supervisors in order to discuss current projects, provide updates, gain support, and conduct trouble-shooting for any difficulties that may arise. Students are expected to attend various meetings and trainings.	-	Students will also complete an internship orientation, as well as on-the-job training conduct trouble-shooting for any difficulties that may arise. Students are expected to attend various meetings and trainings.
conduct trouble-shooting for any difficulties that may arise. Students are expected to attend various meetings and trainings.		supervisors in order to discuss current projects, provide updates, gain support, and to attend various meetings and trainings.
		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
Time Commitment Individual schedules are created based on the student's availability and CADA's	Time Commitment	Individual schedules are created based on the student's availability and CADA's & Schedule needs and schedule during regular business hours.
Community advocacy interns are expected to attend and assist at one support group on Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday evening.		, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , Students are expected to pick up a minimum of two call-out shifts a month, and are encouraged to take more.

To apply: Submit internship application, resume, and cover letter to CADA's Administrative Assistant and Volunteer Coordinator: beritb@cadamn.org